

About me

Name/what I want you to call me:

My name is Sarah.

Where I'm from:

I am from Reading.

About me /Background

I have two children, both at primary school. My son has cerebral palsy and often needs more help than other children to do ordinary things. I used to work in publishing but since having my children I have become involved in helping others in my local community. As well as working at Reading IASS for SEND I help out with a local special needs charity.

I like

- Talking and listening to people
- Finding out about things
- Having time to drink tea, play the piano, sing, potter in the garden and make jam (not all at the same time)

I dislike

- ☒ When people say they are going to do something and then don't do it
- ☒ When I am too busy to do the things I enjoy

What I like about my job...

I like meeting and helping lots of different people. I like not knowing who is going to need my help today. It feels good when people tell you that you have made a difference to their day. I like finding out about the creative things that some schools and settings do to support children and young people with SEND.

What you need to know about me...

I will let you tell your story and I will listen. If I don't know how to help you I will say so and I will ask others and get back to you. You can trust that if I say I will do something then I will. I will speak up for you if you need or want me to, or I will help you to find a way to speak up for yourself if you would like to. I can't make decisions for you but I can give you advice and help you look at your options.
