

About me

Name/what I want you to call me:

My name is Lesley

Where I'm from:

I have lived in lots of different places in my life, but for the last few years I have lived just outside Reading.

About me /Background

I have two adult children. I originally trained as a solicitor and was a lecturer for many years. I have also worked in a primary school and have in the past been a Chair of Governors.

I like

- Meeting all sorts of different people
- Having a job where no two days are the same and I get out and about talking to people
- Spending time with my family, walking, reading, visiting my favourite place (the Derbyshire Dales) and generally having a peaceful life

I dislike

- ☒ When people are treated unfairly
- ☒ When there are not enough hours in the day to get everything done

What I like about my job...

I always wanted to have a job where I could try to help people and I like to provide a calm listening ear when people are upset. Because I go into all sorts of different schools and other places I get ideas about how children and young people with SEND might be supported. I like to build relationships with all sorts of people that I meet, as this can help to achieve good outcomes for parents, children and young people

What you need to know about me...

I will do my best to listen to you and ask the right questions. I do not know the answer to everything, but I will try to find out and make sensible suggestions. I will respond to your call or email. I will help you to make decisions that are right for you and make sure your voice is heard.
